Free Video Based Classes - Overview

Below you will find The College Tour's classes designed specifically for international students looking to study in the USA. This class is self-guided and video-based using segments from The College Tour TV series. All videos in the class are told by real college students. The classes are free, and for all ages, from middle school to high school students to adult learners. We have also found that teachers, counselors, and parents see value in taking these classes in order to have educated conversations with young people about their college search.
